

Electrical Engineer – Caramondani Engineers

Cyprus

Role Description

For over 60 years, Caramondani Engineers has led the way in electromechanical contracting, shaping some of Cyprus's most vital infrastructure, from hospitals and airports to hotels, commercial towers, and power stations. We rely on our skilled site engineers to lead our people, solve problems, and bring complex systems to life.

Our team is recruiting to expand its fast-growing business. We are seeking highly motivated candidates to join our team of engineers.

As an electrical engineer, you will be responsible for overseeing all aspects of on and off site to bring electrical systems to life, on time and to the required quality standards.

Responsibilities

- Supervise on-site electrical installation works and ensure high standards of workmanship
- Lead your site team, organizing people and processes for maximum effectiveness
- Coordinate with project managers and engineers to align plans with real-world conditions
- Participate in site meetings, representing Caramondani Engineers, communicating clearly and confidently with clients, consultants, and contractors.
- Oversee the creation of construction drawings, providing insights and approvals as needed
- Be part of the maintenance teams for various maintenance contracts

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering;
- Member of ETEK
- 4-5 years of experience in managing site installations, especially in complex MEP projects
- Fluency in Greek and English, both written and oral
- Organizational and leadership skills
- Superior problem-solving skills
- Self-motivated and capable of thriving in a challenging and fast paced environment and meeting demanding deadlines

Additional attributes

- Experience working on large-scale commercial or public infrastructure projects
 - Adept with AutoCAD or Revit, and understand how to bridge the gap between technical drawings and on-site execution
 - Eager to grow into more senior leadership or project management roles over time
 - Well-functioning member of a team who people enjoy working with.
